

07-04-1985-p. 4

ORDER OF THE CEREMONIES
I. Welcome.....	S. Robert Powell, President Maplewood Cemetery Association
II. The Star-Spangled Banner (to be performed twice):
a. The Port Royal Band Book version of 1853, by the well-known bandmaster and instrument inventor, Allen Dodsworth. (Recorded performance by the Eastman Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Frederick Pennell.)
b. The twentieth-century version. (Recorded performance by the National Philharmonic Orchestra, Charles Gerhardt, Conductor; Sherrill Milnes, baritone.)
III. Why Are We Here? .....	S. Robert Powell
IV. "Concord Hymn" .....	Ralph Waldo Emerson (Sung at the completion of the Battle Monument, April 19, 1836) ..... read by John V. Buberniak (a Friend of Maplewood Cemetery)
V. "America".....	Samuel Francis Smith read by Holly A. Brown (a Friend of Maplewood Cemetery)
VI. "In Flanders Fields".....	John McCrae read by Donald W. Powell Member of the Board of Directors Maplewood Cemetery Association
VII. Remarks.....	B. Peter Suchnick Member of the Board of Directors Maplewood Cemetery Association
VIII. "This Is God's Earth".....	Rev. Dr. Claude A. Pullis Pastor of the Berean Baptist Church Carbondale, PA
IX. "Taps".....	Jeff Kelsch, Trumpet A Member of the Carbondale Area High School Band and a Friend of Maplewood Cemetery
X. "The Flag Goes By".....	Henry Holcomb Bennett ..... read by S. Robert Powell
XI. "The Stars and Stripes Forever".....	John Philip Sousa (Recorded performance by the Philadelphia Orchestra, Eugene Ormandy, Conductor.)

Klinkiewicz arranged for WPAU-TV to be present; they shot a lot of film but missed it up during the six o'clock news and so we almost had television coverage of the event.

not present at the ceremony;
John Klinkiewicz read the "Concord Hymn"
"ill" & not able to attend although he seemed well enough when we stopped over at his house for coffee & cake.

07-04-1985-p. 5

The ceremony went beautifully; most annoyingly, however, Job did not show up and he did not call to say that he would not show up. I could have strangled him had I been able to get my hands around his neck at the time. Such immaturity and selfishness on his part. If he had called and said that he could not make it, I would have understood and easily forgiven him. When will he grow up? Just when I think he has grown up, he turns around and pulls a stunt like his no-show today. Fortunately, John Klinkiewicz was willing to read the "Concord Hymn" in Job's stead.

Following the ceremony, DWP/HAB, SRP and John Klinkiewicz were invited into Cemetery Street, for coffee and cake with the Suchnicks. Pete seemed to have "recovered" from his morning "illness" and we had a very enjoyable cup of coffee with him and his wife. Following dinner with HARP & WSP at the Iny course, DWP/HAB and SRP repaired to Ekedale and listened to the tape of the complete <sup>July 4th Maplewood</sup> ceremony that DWP had made. Very satisfying -- regrettably, my portable tape recorder did not erase all of the music on the tape that DWP used, and so there is some piano music <sup>audible</sup> in the background -- one can hear the piano or not, depending on how well one concentrates.